

ISEP

ISCAP

ESE

ESMAE

ESEB G

ESTGF

ESTSP

IPP

Porto

UNESCO World Heritage

Introducing IPP

IPP is the largest Polytechnic in Portugal, forms an academic community of over:

- 17.100 Students
- 1.445 Teaching staff
- 446 Non teaching staff

Introducing IPP

Schools

Porto

ISEP.IPP -- > School of Engineering

ESE.IPP -- > School of Education

ESMAE.IPP -- > School of Music and Performing Arts

Matosinhos

ISCAP.IPP -- > School of Accounting and Administration

Vila Nova de Gaia

ESTSP.IPP -- > School of Allied Health Sciences

Vila do Conde

ESEIG.IPP -- > School of Management and Industrial Studies

Felgueiras

ESTGF.IPP -- > School of Management and Technology

Introducing IPP

Provide first and second cycle courses according with the Bologna model

- 47 Masters
 - 58 Bachelors
- (significant number of postgraduation)

Introducing IPP

Scientific Areas:

- Music, Theatre and Audiovisual Arts
- Education
- Management
- Engineering and Technology
- Health

Introducing IPP

IPP began its activity in 1985 as a result of the 1979 re-definition of the national education strategy which created polytechnic institutions.

1985: School of Education (ESE) and the School of Music (ESMAE);

1988: School of Accounting and Management (ISCAP);

1989: School of Engineering (ISEP);

1990: School of Management and Industrial Studies (ESEIG);

1994: School of Management and Technology of Felgueiras (ESTGF);

2006: School on Allied Health Sciences (ESTSP)

Introducing IPP

- IPP elaborated and approved its Statutes in 1995, where were defined the mission and goals for the institution.
- In 2006, made the first alteration in the Statutes.
- In 2009 publish a new IPP's Statutes in compliance with the new Legal framework for the evaluation of higher education.

Introducing IPP

Integrated Resources

Student Welfare Services

Porto Polytechnic Foundation

Knowledge and Innovation Transfer Unit

Theatre Helena Sá e Costa

Parada Leitão Museum

Introducing IPP

The IPP Welfare Services were created to provide students with a social support structure, according to their Statutes, approved in 1997.

(in 2009 a budget of 762.450,00€ for 15.279 students)

Introducing IPP

IPP began the implementation of its internationalization policy in 1989.

IPP | International Network

- Incoming students – 312
- Outgoing students – 149
- Bilateral Agreements – 483
- Partner Institutions – 400
- Countries@IPP - 35

Introducing IPP

Since 1995 promoted the evaluation of its study cycles according to the national legal framework for the evaluation of higher education.

IPP became the first Portuguese higher education institution to implement a quality management system according to ISO 9001:2000.

Introducing IPP

In 2006 IPP self volunteered to Institutional Evaluation Programme by EUA and in 2010 submitted to the EUA Follow-up.

Thank you!

www.ipp.pt