1.1 QUESTIONS

1.1.1 Why does the service for quality assurance exist?

- To relieve teachers of the additional workload
 - -to identify, unify, analyse, monitor standards and educate teachers about these standards
- -To realise and implement standards
- -to control realised standards and analyse the achieved results
- -to give proposals and measures for quality improvement
- -To provide adequate interpretation and SWOT analysis of values, weaknesses, opportunities
- -To define unified measures and models for quality implementation
- -to assure the quality of study programs, tuition, course books, student service work, election and the quality of teachers and their work and elections
- -To define metodlogy of evaluation and evaluation of student work and success at studies

1.1.2 Who are our customers? What can they expect from us? Note: there are also internal customers

Customers:

- -High school education
- -institutions -members of the Academy and Conference
- -teaching and non-teachin staff
- -students
- -conference of the Academy of the vocational studies of Serbia
- --Commission for the quality control
- --National Council
- -- the Ministry of Education
- --economy
- --local government
- -Expectations: results from the 1.1.1
- 1.1.3 Which activities does the academy pursue? For which customers?

Activities:

- -to identify, unify, analyse, monitor standards and educate teachers about these standards
- -to realise and implement standards
- -to control realised standards and analyse the achieved results
- -to give proposals and measures for quality improvement

1.2 TODO: SUMMARIZE THE ANSWERS TO PREVIOUS QUESTIONS IN A FEW KEY PHRASES.

- -to provide sercives based on given standards towards internal and external customers
- -integrated analysis, specification definition, informing about and education on work standards
- -realization of adopted standards from the aspect of the quality of study program tuition
- -defining of the metodology for evaluation of work progress and student, teaching and non-teaching staff success
- -defining of measures and the model for quality assurance, analysis of the achieved results (SWOT)

2.1 QUESTIONS

2.1.1 What are the main key processes the service is providing?

-Standardizing the methodology work and informing studenats and external customers

2.1.2 TASK: DESCRIBE FOR EACH PROCESS IN BRIEF: INPUT, TRANSFORM, OUTPUT

1)

input: standards, customers

transformation: common adoption, monitoring and unifying,

education

output:unique attitude toward standards, unique methodology of implementation and evaluation of standards (eg. Unique attitude on ECTS credits for each subject in relation to the number of classes, practice, pre-examination activities and other activities 2)

input: the old method of work

T: realisation

Output: new study programs, methodologies

3)input: defining the requests for new work procedures transformation:

output:

4) input: realised documents on standards

transformation: control

output: evaluation of the input documents and proposals of measures for quality improvement

5)

input: standards and existing methodologies and the

achieved results of work

transformation: evaluation

output: defined new methodologies for evaluation, and marking of work results of students, teachers and others (

defining new measures and models for quality implementation)

3.1 QUESTIONS

- 3.1.1 How would you describe the attitude of staff necessary to fully contribute to the smooth functioning of the service?
- aware of the importance of the service (clarity of the mission and vision)
- -active, professional, competent, flexible, motivated
- 3.1.2 How would you describe the necessary attitude of staff to colleagues?
- -professional
- cooperative
- -self-critical

- 3.1.3 How would you describe the necessary attitude of staff towards students?
- -dedicated to work, cooperative, approachable, user-friendly
- 3.1.4 How would you describe the necessary attitude of staff to third parties (work field, visitors, ...)?
- -active, cooperative, team work, readiness for co-operation

4.1 QUESTIONS ANSWERED WITH EXAMPLES

- 4.1.1 To where the service wants to go to?
- --connecting with international institutions of the same kind with the aim to exchange experiences
- -to achive the quality results of the similar institutions in the region and abroad

4.1.2 What will the service reach within 5 years?

-to achive the quality results of the similar institutions in the region and abroad

4.1.3 Are we expanding our activities or target groups or do we study them more thoroughly?

- -some activities are expanded
- -some of them are studied more thoroughly and then analysed altogether

4.1.4 What do we change in our approach?

- -responsibility
- -our starting points
- -openess to new standards, methods and work methodologies

4.1.5 Will we need other qualifications?

- -quality control in each sector
- -engagement of the relevant subjects form the EU
- -the awareness of legislation and supposedly qualification from the domain of education of the Academy